Collier County leaders to dedicate Guadalupe Center Resource Hub on April 18

WHAT: Nonprofit, government and business leaders will join community leaders in dedicating the new Guadalupe Center Resource Hub in Immokalee. The centrally located storage and distribution center will securely house essentials like food, clothing and hygiene items for underserved families in Immokalee.

The 3,200-square-foot Guadalupe Center Resource Hub is the result of a partnership between Guadalupe Center, Collier Community Foundation, social service agencies and businesses. The warehouse will hold a variety of academic and household items, such as books, school supplies, hygiene items, toys and games, food, clothing, furniture, cleaning supplies, tools, emergency preparedness supplies and more.

Through its Collier Comes Together Hurricane Relief Fund, Collier Community Foundation provided a $300,000 grant to purchase the warehouse building, which is adjacent to Guadalupe Center's Monaghan Family Campus for Learning.

WHEN: Thursday, April 18
10 a.m.

WHERE: Guadalupe Center Resource Hub
1310 Reflections Way
Immokalee, FL 34142

WHO: Dawn Montecalvo, President and CEO of Guadalupe Center
Eileen Connolly-Keesler, President and CEO of Collier Community Foundation
